From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Mrs. Davis Ignores the "ADvice"

Last week, the Clarion advertised a homemaking course given by the Woman's Club.

"Seemed a fine idea to me," Red Davis told me later, "so I showed the ad to my wife. Told her she'd learn how to do new things—more efficiently, too."

"But all she did was look at me and smile," Red continued. "You men,' she said, 'always thinking of more work for women. Learn new things? Why, I haven't even got the time to do all the old ones!' "

From where I sit, a lot of us do leap into the new at the expense of the old. Take the of tolerance, for instance. been around for centuries but it's something we never bypass. Tolerance minds daily respect other fellow's preferences and that includes Tolerance doesn't mean you have to like a thing for Saturday night supper just as I don't have to buttermilk. Just respect next man's choice.

APPOMATTOX COUNTY FACES A CHOICE

1. Either support the County RED CROSS Chapter with Funds and blood donations to the Regional Blood Program.

OR

2. Relinquish our RED CROSS Chapter Charter and drop out of the Regional Blood Program: Which means we would have to give up many important services to the Citizens of Appomattox County such as:

1. RED CROSS BLOOD PROGRAM
This would mean that Appomattox Citizens would have to start paying about $40.00 per pint, which you or your loved ones need, and is always available through the Blood Bank program.

In the two Blood Mobile visits to the County this year, our Chapter has donated only 63% and 39% respectfully, of our quota. We must raise this to at least 75% to stay in the Program.

2. RED CROSS HOME SERVICE
In the past year our Home Service Worker handled 69 cases for our men in Service, 38 cases for Veterans, and 23 cases for Civilians.

3. THE WATER SAFETY AND JUNIOR LIFE SAVING PROGRAM.

4. DISASTER RELIEF

IF YOU ARE INTERESTED in keeping the RED CROSS Chapter in the County, and provide these important services to our citizens, please attend a Mass Meeting at APPOMATTOX COURT HOUSE, on Thursday, Oct. 29, at 7:30 P. M., and help us solve the many problems which face us.
